BABY-GIRL WAS

"Are you on friendly terms with this child's mother?" the baby remarked. "Here's my mama," pointing to Mrs. Snider. When the witnesses had finished the child climbed into the big chair and looked over to acting Judge Showalter as though to say: "Don't I come next?" The child's name was not changed in the adoption as the mother who was not present requested it be not changed on account of the little brother who lives with her.

The only other business transacted this morning before the Judge was that of a summary proceeding for substitution of trustee. John E. Kintyhat resigned his position of trustee to Thomas N. Martin who was appointed in his place.

Notes of Interest Among Railroaders

This is pay day on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

Officials of W. V. U. have congratulated the Monongahela Railway on the splendid time that the special trains made on Saturday when the run was made to Pittsburgh for the W. V. U.-Pitt football game. The trip was made in three hours and 15 minutes, which is almost forty miles an hour, despite the fact that there were ten coaches on the train.

M. R. Elrick, B. & O. representative, is here checking up the traffic on B. & O. trains out of Fairmont for the purpose of compiling figures to be used in drafting accommodations incident to the new fall B. & O. schedule.

Fifty-two Fairmonters went to Pittsburgh on the B. & O. excursion last Sunday.

C. W. Galloway, Baltimore, federal manager, and J. M. Scott, Wheeling, general superintendent of the West Virginia district of the B. & O. lines, are expected in Clarksburg on Wednesday.

Boy Scout Official Is Here Tomorrow

Coming to Fairmont to establish a city executive council of the Boy Scouts of America, H. A. Gordon, of Harrisburg, Pa., assistant national field scout commissioner, will confer with a group of prominent Fairmonters at the Y. M. C. A. on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

There are a number of prominent men in this city interested in the movement.

REZNOR

Heats the Whole Room

Hot ripples, but steady waves of solid warmth spread from the little Reznor. It's built on the right idea; perfect combustion is assured; radiates every atom of heat and sends that heat where you need it.

Reznor Reflector Gas Heater

Odorless—Will Not Vitalize the Air. Investigate the difference between heaters—not their looks—their principle and their efficiency. Ask your dealer.

Reznor Reflector Oil Heater

Made on the same principle as our famous gas heater; reflects the heat downward and thus warms the floor first. Most substantial, cheerful, economical and odorless oil heater made. See it demonstrated at your dealer's.
